DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

Drawings are now approved as part of the pre-exam processing, which occurs prior to docketing of the case to the examiner. (If the case has reached the examiner, the drawings were approved.) On the notice of allowance, there is a box that is checked off to reaffirm this approval, but basically examiner's approval or disapproval of drawings is limited to issues of accuracy or correspondence to the claims, which must be raised explicitly by the examiner in the record for the drawing to be disapproved. No such issues have been raised here.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1, 3-8, and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jewell in view of Komoto et al. and Sasagawa et al.

See reasons of record in the Office action of 5 October 2004.

Conclusion

Applicant argues that the teachings of the references cannot be considered together because there are differences in structure and function between the Jewell and the Komoto devices. The references are relied upon only as set forth in the Office actions, however, with Jewell teaching oxidation (and not merely oxidizability) as recited in the claims. Komoto is relied upon for the teaching of the specific layers that make up an LED, and which could make up any LED, such as that of Jewell.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 2811

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
